Eliana Letting her Light Shine!

As part of the Legacy Church, Eliana was hand-picked for her recognised leadership qualities to train to become a youth leader and take part in a youth leader conference recently in Wales. She had a very rewarding time using and developing her coaching skills – we are very proud of her!

Adaline Letting her Light Shine!

Adaline danced at the Great British Championships of Irish dancing in London, dancing against some of the best dancers from all over the world. She came 2nd in her age group which at 5 years old at her first major competition is an amazing achievement - we are very proud of her!

Alice Letting her Light Shine!

Alice danced at the Great British Championship of Irish dancing in London. She danced with some of the best dancers from all over the world. She did amazing, coming 25th place in her age category and was the top North West regional dancer also which is incredible. We are so proud of her!
